

Superintendent Mark P. Morgan

Superintendent Morgan graduated from Brookline High School, received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from Boston State College and a Master of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from Western New England College. Superintendent Morgan served three years active duty in the United States Army, Army Security Agency.

Superintendent Morgan was appointed to the Brookline Police Department in 1983. He was assigned as a Detective from 1987 to 1992 then promoted to Sergeant serving as a Patrol Sergeant and a Detective Sergeant until his promotion to Lieutenant in 1995. He was then assigned as Night Commander of the Detective Division until his promotion to Captain in 2003. Superintendent Morgan was assigned to the Service Division before being assigned Commander of the Detective Division. He served in that position from 2004 until September of 2009 when he was appointed as the Department's Police Superintendent.

Superintendent Morgan is a graduate of the F.B.I. National Academy in Quantico, VA., and has received advance training in homicide, narcotics and cold case investigations, incident command along with mediation and conflict resolution. Superintendent Morgan was previously assigned to the Boston Police Youth Violence Strike Force

Captain Myles Murphy

Patrol Division

Captain Myles Murphy was born and raised in Brookline, graduating from Brookline High School in 1983. He then attended the University of Massachusetts at Amherst where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Legal Studies. Later in his career, Captain Murphy attended and received a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice at Anna Maria College. He has also attended Southern New England School of Law attending the classes of Torts, Contracts and Property Laws.

In 2008, he attended the Senior Management Institute for Police at Boston University and is currently attending a certificate program with Suffolk University in Public Safety Leadership and Management.

Captain Murphy was appointed to the Brookline Police Department in 1989 and assigned to the Patrol Division. He was promoted to Sergeant in 1999 and continued as a Patrol supervisor until 2003 when he was promoted to Lieutenant. He was then assigned as a relief shift commander in the Patrol Division and as the Department's Lodging Officer, overseeing Brookline's 55 lodging facilities. Later in 2003, he was assigned to the Detective Division as the Night Lieutenant/Commander of that Division. He was then promoted in 2009 to Captain being assigned to the Patrol Division. During his career he has earned multiple Department commendations and has also received the Brookline Police Association's Special Recognition Award in 1995 and, along with other fellow officers, received The Cambridge Police Law Enforcement Award in 2002.

Captain Michael Gropman

Traffic Division

Captain Michael Gropman is a 1981 graduate of Brookline High School. He joined the police department in 1989 and was promoted to sergeant in 1995. He served as the Police Prosecutor and the Liquor Control Officer as a lieutenant before being promoted to captain in 2004. Captain Gropman holds a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice from Anna Maria College, and a Doctorate from Boston University in Developmental Studies.

Captain Gropman has received advance leadership and Management Training from the Police Executive Research Forum in Washington, D.C, Babson College in Wellesley, MA and the University of Massachusetts at Lowell, MA. He is still active with Brookline Hockey, founding the Brookline Hockey Association some 7 years ago. This conglomerate of Brookline hockey alumni work together with Brookline High School and Brookline Youth Hockey to raise money for various causes. An alumni hockey tournament is held at the Dexter School each February, and an alumni golf tournament is held at Putterham Meadows each September. Captain Gropman is a member of the Town's Transportation Board and Parking Committee, and is also an Adjunct Professor at Mt. Ida College in Newton.

The Traffic Department consists of 3 Police Sergeants and hearing officers, 6 Traffic Officers, 17 School Traffic supervisor, 9 Parking Control Officers, and a clerical staff of 6 dedicated town employees. The traffic division oversees a number of various programs that are designed to ensure traffic safety, minimize traffic congestion, and assist with the parking needs in both the residential and commercial areas of Brookline. The Traffic Division can be contacted at 617-730-2230 or by email at suggestions@brooklinepolice.com

Thomas Keaveney

Community Service Division

Captain John O'Leary

Detective Division